RMHP Medigap Plans Update

New Medigap plans, effective June 1, 2010 are currently under consideration by the DOI. We look forward to learning more about the new plan designs. We will share information about the new plans and the Rocky Mountain Health Plans rates, as soon as they are approved.

In the meantime, please stop selling the current RMHP Medigap plans with an effective date of June 1, 2010, or later.

As always, if you have any questions, comments or need assistance, please call your Rocky Mountain Health Plans or CNIC Account Executive.
