Peak Health Small Business Plans from RMHP

Dear Valued Broker,

At Rocky Mountain Health Plans (RMHP), we're committed to keeping our valued partners informed about new products we're offering. For 2020, RMHP is proud to be the official Peak Health carrier for small businesses in Summit County.

Peak Health Alliance is a non-profit purchasing alliance whose mission is to provide more affordable, high-quality health care coverage by leveraging the power of an entire community to negotiate more competitive options for its members.

Together, we're committed to providing this coverage at lower costs.

Peak Health Products from RMHP

RMHP offers two Peak Health product lines for small business plans:

- 1. Peak Health HMO Plans: Single-Tier Coverage (lowest-priced plan options)
  - Offers access to a local network of providers and facilities that includes:
    - All Colorado Centura Health facilities and providers
    - Local independent providers
    - Select service providers and facilities, including Children's Hospital and University Hospital
- 1. Peak Health Choice EPO Plans: Two-Tiered Network
  - Tier 1 includes access to the Peak Health HMO network; Members pay less for services when care is received from a Tier 1 provider.
  - Tier 2 includes access to all other RMHP providers and facilities through our statewide network, which is one of the largest in Colorado.

National Network & Pharmacy Access

Access to the national network is available for care that is medically necessary and pre-authorized, and for dependent children living out of the area.

National Network

RMHP contracts with Optum for their transplant and centers of excellence network. RMHP utilizes UnitedHealthcare's Options PPO national network, which also includes centers of excellence.

Members can be assured that if specialty care is needed and is not available within the RMHP Peak Health networks, they will have access to that care if required.

Pharmacy Network

RMHP Members enrolled on Peak Health plans have access to RMHP's statewide and national network pharmacies, including mail order services. In Summit County, network pharmacies include Walmart, Safeway, City Market, and Walgreens.
